Solveram me continere Illustrissime princeps et Reverendissime domine, ab eo scribendi officio cum fragilitas ingenii mei nichil se scire posse tale conspiceret, quod dignum foret gratia Illustrissime d. indicaret. Accedit preterea et alius Reverendissime domine zelus firmior vite etatis mee, in arte siderali reverendissimus in ea ... Qualis vir debeat esse mathematicus, fortunas magnorum principum scrutari prohibet decretum cum iudicio summi dei gubernari dicat, tot solum genus hominum esse asserat, quod stellarum motibus non subiaceat, licet in eorum fatis stellas habere dominandi potestatem, Albumasar, Hali et Ptolomeus, quibus potentissimum numen ... alicuius scientie ... concesserit ... et admodum ... persuadent rationibus.

Quod utique non alio respectu aut animi proposito eos voluisse ex eorum monumentis colligimus. Nisi ut posteritatem ab hiis depromendis retraherent. Nec incongrue advertebant etiam esse in ea re difficultatem summam. Quam omnes Genethliaci namque tamquam Scyllam et horrendum scopulum declinabant. Licet id non ignorarent, quod hec tota mundi inferioris substantia necessitate quadam legis gubernetur divinis illis namque per incorruptibilibus superiorum corporibus quorum nos spiritum namque haurire licet ut Platoni atque Porphirio placet. Non auderem itaque Reverendissime domine transgre-di instituta maiorum meorum. Quia tamen id mihi est quod non aliud diu noctuque agito, ne id negligam quod studio meo pro R. d. vestra efferi posset. Quo fit ut eas lucubratiunculas que vires meas aliquantisper excedere videntur Vestre Illustrissime dominationi presentare decrevi. Quas benigne recipi oro.
Michi vero quem assidui itineris diversitas sollicitat, si quid indigestum Reverendissima dominatio vestra (minus etiam non stabilis dicta) offenderit, veniam dabit
